SURVIVAL TACTICS

Be careful about using Haggar's and Cody's super moves. Each time you use them they will deplete your strength.

Wait until your strength bar is low before you pick up the food you find.

Don't try and stand toe-to-toe with the bosses. Instead, hit them a couple times and then move off.

Each punch and kick does a different amount of damage. Experiment with different combination to find out which are the most lethal.
